

- traveler and mountain climber from Pilsen (CZ)
- one of the most successful Czech Himalayan climbers – summited five eight-thousanders in five attempts
- enthusiast of all kinds of sports
- geodesist, teacher and organizer of sport and cultural events
- former manager of the legendary rock band Znouzecnost
- director and co-organizer of Škoda Bike Marathon
- executive head of the outdoor company Summit Drive, responsible for the management of the climbing wall (TJ – Loko in Pilsen), organizing climbing courses, and team building events
- co-founder of Czech Pub – the first Czech tavern and cultural center in Nepal
- author of multi-media presentations for schools, companies and the general public
- vegetarian for over 25 years

Life is not only about summits themselves, but about an amazing journey to them...

May 20, 1976

Pilsen

+ 420 776 359 536

honzatravatravnicek@gmail.com

www.honzatravnicek

Honza „Tráva“ Trávníček

Jan Trávníček

honzatravatravnicek

Travel and climbing history

Expedition Makalu 2020 postponed until spring 2021 due to coronavirus outbreak :-)

we are preparing a large Czech expedition to one of the most difficult eight-thousander

Expedition Ama Dablam 2019

filmmaking and climbing expedition – reached the altitude of approx. 6,300 m a.s.l.

Expedition Manaslu 2018

with Miri Jirková (girlfriend) reached the altitude of 7,600 m a.s.l.
ascent terminated due to bad weather conditions

Expedition Cho Oyu 2016

summit of Cho Oyu (8,201 m a.s.l.) reached on 7th of October blind climber Honza Říha reached an altitude of 7,500 m a.s.l.

Expedition Manaslu 2015

with Miri Jirková (girlfriend) reached the last high-altitude camp at 7,400 m a.s.l.
the ascent terminated due to the rescue mission of a French climber – awarded by the Czech Olympic committee with the Fair-play award

Expedition K2 2014

summit of K2 (8,611 m a.s.l.) reached on 27th of June together with Radek Jaroš

Expedition South America 2013 reached summits: Nevado Chopicalqui 6,354 m a.s.l., Huascarán 6,768 m a.s.l.

attempt at Chimborazo 6,268 m a.s.l. – reached the altitude of 6,000 m a.s.l.

Expedition Annapurna 2012

summit of Annapurna (8,091 m a.s.l.) reached on 6th of May together with Radek Jaroš

Expedition Manaslu 2011

summit of Manaslu (8,163 m a.s.l.) reached on 29th of April

Expedition Gasherbrum 2009 summit of Gasherbrum I (8,068 m a.s.l.) reached on 3rd of June

Bolivia, Cordillera 2005

reached the summit of Huayna Potosi 6,088 m a.s.l.

Tajikistan, Pamir 2003

attempt at Pik Korschenewskaja (7,106 m a.s.l.) – reached an altitude of 7,000 m a.s.l.

Nepal, Himalaya 2000

attempt at Parchamo Peak (6,237 m a.s.l.) – reached an altitude of 6,000 m a.s.l.